Contents

Editorial
2 UK epilepsy audit shows major deficiencies in care: who should respond and how?
T Marson

Reviews
4 When worlds collide: the uncomfortable romance between law and neurology
C J Mumford
13 When worlds collide: comments from a barrister
J A Perry
14 Epilepsy in sub-Saharan Africa
M Prevett

Contemporary neurological
29 Chameleons, confusion, and the Clinical Historian
T Hughes

Neuroimaging
31 Normal vascular imaging
S A Renowden

Neurological rarities
39 An unusual cause of mononeuritis multiplex
S Huda, A Krishnan
42 Asystole and facial pain
S Huda, K Das, M Steiger

Test yourself
44 Organic neuropsychiatry: a treatable cause of suicidal behaviour
S R Irani, A Vincent, L Jacobson, S Logsdail, R J Butterworth

How to do it
49 Introducing neurological examination for medical undergraduates—how I do it
C M Wiles

A difficult case
51 Lessons from everyday practice: septic cavernous sinus thrombosis due to sphenoid sinusitis in a young patient following a road traffic accident
V Liolios, E Petridou, I Vangelopoulos, N Puvanachandra

Image of the moment
54 Hemiatrophy and seizures: a case of adult-onset Rasmussen encephalitis
J Cosgrove, M Busby

Neuroimaging in transient global amnesia
T Wilkinson, F Geranmayeh, P Dassan, J C Janssen

Neurological letter from 58 Letter from Brazil
A J Wills

From the retired
62 A mercurial message
G Stern

Letter
63 Milk, chocolate and Nobel prizes
S Linthwaite, G N Fuller

Letter to the editor
64 Development of professions
U Jones

Carphology
66 Carphology by A Fo Ben

Electronic Page
e1 All diagnoses are clinical, but some are more clinical than others
R G Whittaker